A Good Pleader.

One of the most pathetic scenes ever witnessed in a court in this city, was, the other day, when counselor R. H. Lindsay pleaded for a light sentence, in the U. S. Circuit Court, for his client, John Maguire, for the sake of the latter's family. The appeal was not of such a nature as one is accustomed to hear from a lawyer, but it was evident that it came from the depth of Mr. Lindsay's heart, and had the effect of moving all his listeners to tears, not even excepting Judge Sawyer.

Incorporation.

The Regent Mining Company yesterday filed articles of incorporation in the office of the Secretary of State. Capital $10,000,000, divided into 100,000 shares. Trustees: T. W. Hubbard, M. C. Hillyer, J. F. Angel, George B. Hillyer, L. D. Folsom. Incorporated for the purpose of prosecuting mining in Lyon county. Principal place of business, Virginia City.

Won't Improve.

All the improvements which owners of resorts about Lake Tahoe had contemplated making for the season of 1882 have been abandoned. Even Lucky Baldwin, with all the millions he is supposed to have, will not incur any expense to render that naturally beautiful spot, Tallac, more attractive.

Sad News.

M. M. Hyde yesterday received a dispatch from Mrs. Hyde, who went to San Francisco about a fortnight ago to have one of their twin children treated for a spinal ailment, that the child was in a dying condition. The parents have the heartfelt sympathy of many warm friends in Carson.

Alfred Lilienfeld, the dry goods merchant, has returned from his trip to Bodie. He says its awful cold out there, being 16 degrees below zero when he left.

IN BRIEF.

Judge T. H. Wells, of Aurora, is in the city.

Al. Harkness, of the Mill Creek stage line, is at the Ormsby.

At P. A. Wagner & Co.'s they have some very stylish willow wood baskets.

William McDonald, a prominent San Francisco insurance man, is in the city.

There will be turkey shooting near the old planing mill, on the railroad, tomorrow.

The Carson Guard will have their annual shoot at Treadway's Park tomorrow.

The outlook is that the Mint will hereafter be kept well supplied with silver bullion.

Don't forget the dancing school this afternoon and evening of Mrs. Alt, at the Opera House.

It is generally believed among mining men that Savage will soon make a first-class showing.

Insurance men say that Carson is one of the most profitable fields for their business on the coast.

A carload of trees and plants arrived here yesterday, for divers Carsonites who intend to beautify their places.

Rev. E. F. Walker, of Virginia, will conduct the morning and evening services at the Presbyterian Church tomorrow.

The APPEAL is pleased to announce that the serious illness of Senator Jones' mother has taken a more favorable turn.

For crockery, glassware and ornamental eccentricities go to Mason & Co. They have just received a large consignment.

It is a noteworthy fact that there are fewer people living on public charity in this city than in any other town of a similar size in the State.

Hume Yerington has received one of the latest improved bicycles from the East, which he manages with the proficiency of a professional.

W. M. Thornton, Secretary of the V & T R. R. Co., will locate at San Francisco, as soon as his successor is made familiar with the duties of his office.

There will be a perfect jam at the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday nights of next week, to see Sheridan, and those who desire good seats are advised not to procrastinate.

A letter from Wood River states that all Carsonites who emigrated to that country last spring and remained are doing fairly well, with the prospects of making good stakes next year.

On or about the 25th of last month came to Wood Ranch, a mile west of Carson, in King's Canyon, a gray mare. The owner can have the same by proving property and paying costs. n12-2w.

The United States Circuit Court has remanded the case of F. J. Lewis vs. H. Lewis et als. to the Fifth District Court, Lander county, from which latter court it had been removed in January.

James G. Chesley has returned from his trip to Pyramid. He encountered such bad weather that he was compelled to abandon the business upon which he was engaged, for the time being.

A ferocious dog fight between two large brutes opposite Capitol Square yesterday afternoon, attracted a large crowd of men, who relished the affair as much as does a six-year-old youngster a new pair of boots with red tops.

E. B. Parsons, who was recently pardoned out of the State Prison, is going to marry a young lady in Utah, to whom he was engaged while honestly and industriously at work, before his recapture after the "break" of 1872, and will then move to South America.

The Nevada & Oregon.

The freight cars have arrived for the Nevada & Oregon and part of them have been set up. The Reno Gazette says: A passenger car is also nearly completed. The cars are made at Newark, Alameda county, California. The company are now arranging for a construction train which will be made up as follows: Four flat cars, sleeping accommodations for forty-eight men, dining car, kitchen and blacksmith shop. This train will move along one or two miles each day, as may be necessary. The railroad iron is beginning to arrive.

A THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The year now closing will be memorable in the history of our Government. A crime which appalled the American people and shocked the civilized world was committed upon the person of the Nation's Chief Magistrate. The profound grief occasioned by his sufferings and death still exist among all classes of our citizens. Yet it is a source of pride and thankfulness that, throughout the intense excitement attending the attack upon the late President, his long and heroic struggle for life, his death, and the consequent change of administration, law and order have reigned supreme. This evidence of governmental strength is a matter of especial gratulation. While the citizens of Nevada have not been favored with exceptional business prosperity, marked improvement is manifest, and the outlook for the coming year is bright. As a people we have cause for thankfulness.

Wherefore, in accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States, I, John H. Kinkead, Governor of the State of Nevada, do hereby appoint and designate Thursday, the 24th day of November, A. D. 1881, as a day of Thanksgiving to the Supreme Ruler for the manifest blessings we enjoy, and urge upon the people of this commonwealth a hearty union in its appropriate observance.

JOHN H. KINKEAD,
Governor of Nevada.

A Slave to Duty.

Old Gray, the big horse who was at one time employed to haul the hose-cart which is kept at the Corporation House, was genuinely enthusiastic in his business. He was always on time. This characteristic was encouraged by the fire boys. Old Gray was trained regularly every day, and he soon came to know as much as anybody about what he ought to do. Hard work and rheumatism finally retired old Gray to a furniture wagon. Three days after his retirement he was in front of Currie's auction store, hitched to an express wagon loaded with furniture. All at once an alarm of fire was sounded. Old Gray waited about the length of time that he thought it would take to hitch him to the hose cart, and then he started. The furniture was scattered from one end of the street to the other, but Old Gray reached the fire before the opposition cart, and with a self-satisfied air, backed up to the hydrant. Next day he was returned to the department. His devotion to duty was appreciated.—Enterprise.

The Freaks of a Lunatic.

About 9 o'clock this morning, says the Winnemucca Silver State of Tuesday, the section-men saw a dense cloud of smoke issuing from the section-house near the cattle corral. They hastened there from where they were at work, and found the building on fire and filled with smoke. They subdued the flames, and then searched for a man named John McMann, who had been on a spree, and remained in the house when the others went to work this morning. The Indians found him in the sagebrush, some distance from the house, with his throat cut from ear to ear. He was carried to the house, where Dr. Hanson sewed up his wound, which was not deep enough to sever the jugular vein. The Doctor thinks the man will survive, unless he lost too much blood.

Who Knows?

A great number of bibliophiles here have been rummaging through most of the libraries in town to ascertain who dramatized the version of "Louis XI." as played by Sheridan. As yet the bookworms have not been successful in their search. Who knows?

If there is anything you need, whether it is a gun, piano, violin, diamond, pistol, watch or a pair of eye-glasses, and you haven't got money enough to buy it immediately, send $1, to prepay express charges. Have a selection of the article you want sent to you by express, out of which select something that suits you. Send the articles back, and pay down $5 or $10 by post office order. State how long you want the article kept, and within that time you pay on account any amount you can spare by post office order. Thus you can buy the most expensive article and not miss the money. Thousands of dollars worth of goods are sold in the country this way by the square dealing house of Uncle Harris, 221 Kearny, between Bush and Sutter, San Francisco.

Wood for Sale.

I will sell wood, as good, and even better, than any in Carson, two-thirds red fir limbs, and one-third split yellow-pine (mixed) at $7 per cord. A reduction of fifty cents will be allowed to parties taking five cords or more at one time. I have also a quantity of nut-pine and cedar, which I will sell at proportionately low figures. Terms strictly cash on delivery. D. CIRCE.

Ministers use Ammen's Cough Syrup. Ask for Ammen's Cough Syrup.

Everybody that has tried Ammen's Cough Syrup, continues to use it, besides they tell their neighbors of it. We were in a drug store the other day when a customer asked for a bottle of Ammen's Cough Syrup, saying "I do not know anything about it myself, but my neighbor advised me to buy it for my cold, and tells me that the use of three bottles has entirely cured his cough of two years standing, in fact he says it is the best medicine in the world for coughs, colds and lung complaints," and that a one-dollar bottle did him more good than all the prescriptions he had from the doctors."

M. W. Hodkins, at the Glove Depot, opposite the Arlington House, has just received a large and fine stock of gloves and mitts for gents, ladies and children of the latest styles. Best assortment and lowest prices in the State. Hand-sewn buck gloves a specialty. Also, men's buckskin underwear, socks, suspenders, etc. o4-1m*
